The doubles will be interesting.

SKATING HOCKEY

Jamuna bt Narmada 5-2. In a rough and tumble match, much to the delight of a large cheering squad, Jamuna outclassed their favourite opponents without giving them a chance.

Jamuna bt Ganga 3-1. Jude played very well and Jamuna were unlucky to score only three goals.

Saras bt Ganga 6-1. Ganga opened proceedings with a stroke and after that it was Saras all the way. Malcolm excelled for Saras.

Narmada bt Ganga 2-1. Ganga put up a superb fight in the second half to nearly hold Narmada.

Narmada bt Saras 3-2. In what can be termed a definite upset , Narmada beat a cocky Saras team by a whisker. Ashwath and Malcolm played superbly to give Saras a 2-0 lead at half time. Narmada fought back through Ashwin and Ding to triumph 3-2.

TABLE TENNIS

Narmada beat Mandak 5-3

Despite institute star Vaidy breezing through all his three matches, Narmada gave Mandak no chance. Narayanan (Mandak), who lost tamely to Sajai and Avinash, created shock waves by taking a game off institute player AB S nivasan; but AB recovered his poise to win 16-21, 21-9, 21-18. Anurag was unlucky to lose two close matches.

Matches won: For Mandak, Vaidy - 3; for Narmada, AB - 2, Sajai -
2, Avinash - 1.

The scene of this match seemed like a Freshies' Night gathering. A crowd of about 80 freshies from Tapti, Godav and, of course, Mandak landed up with tin cans, plastic buckets, mess plates and spoons and cycle bells.

HOCKEY

Saras rallies to down Jamuna 2-1

Jamuna led at the breather through a goal scored by Kovilpillai. Saras fought back magnificently to emerge worthy winners. V<sup>3</sup> saw Saras through, with a good performance. The scorers were V<sup>3</sup> and Velaskar. The match was keenly contested and of a high standard, with no rough play involved.

BADDY

Jamuna subdues Godav in titanic struggle (3-2)

The opening match itself was indicative of the grim struggle that was to ensue. In a match that was frequently interrupted (change of shuttles, crowd shouting, etc.), underdog Raghu (Ja) beat Mahadevan 18-14, 15-17, 15-11. Another upset followed as fancied Raghu (Go) went down to Chauhan (Ja) 8-15, 7-15. Jamuna thus led 2-0 and all seemed lost for Godav. But Godav fought back. Ding and Mahadevan outplayed Raghu and Chauhan 18-16, 15-7 in the doubles. Mahadevan had little difficulty downing Chauhan 15-9, 15-6. Godav had equalised 2-2 and the result depended on the outcome of the "Battle of the Raghus". Raghu (Ja) won the first game 15-10. Down 3-7, Raghu (Go) fought back to claim the second 18-16. Playing carelessly, even serving out many a time, Raghu (Go) allowed his namesake to surge to a 14-1 lead. He then came into his own and narrowed the gap to 14-6 before losing 15-6.

CRICKET

Jamuna beats Ganga and claims the gold.

Jamuna 186 for 8 ( Anantu 105, Irani 18, Jude 13, Mr Extras 14; in 40 overs ( Bucket 2 for 16, Ramani 2 for 27, R. Ramesh 2 for 44.
Ganga 143 for 9 ( 'Kaity' 17, Venkat 23, Ramesh R 16, Ramesh P 13, Shyam im 40 overs ( Sundar 13, Bucket 13 n.o., Ramani 14 n.o.; Muggo 3 ( for 23, Irani 2 for 30, Gururaj 2 for 27.

Ganga had Jamuna reeling at 3 wkts down for only 6 runs in 8 overs. Then Ananthu walked in and played a match-winning knock with lusty hits, most of them lofted to all parts of the field. His knock was embellished with 15 fours and two sixes. The Ganga fielders were prodigal and dropped catches galore. In fact, Ananthu was dropped on five occasions, before he reached his hundred. Ganga sorely missed their #1 bowler Sithu. Ganga's batsmen seemed overawed by the total they faced. They chanced their arm hoping for the best and threw away their wickets. Jamuna held all the catches that came their way and were deserving winners. Ganga ended up silver medallists.

Side(y)light: In all the three innings he played for Ganga in the league, P. Ramesh (a 1st yr. MSc Chem student) was out when on 13. Some hat-trick, this!

Exciting win for Cauvery over Saras

Saras 82 all out ( 'Drambo' 61 n.o.; V. Prasad 2 for 21, in 26 overs ( Colin Dawson 3 for 21, Kulkarni 2 for 23.

Cauvery 86 for 8 ( Srinivas 27, Ramamurthy 12; Meenakshi 4 for 24, in 29.4 overs ( Datar 2 for 18.

If Jamuna upset Ganga to claim the gold on Saturday, Cauvery shocked another fancied team (Saras) on Sunday to clinch the third place. This completed the topsy-turvy scenario that this year's inter-hostel Cricket competition witnessed. In the Saras innings there were three run-outs and no batsman (except, of course, 'Drambo') reached double figures. A second wicket stand of 27 was Cauvery's stepping stone to success.

CARROM

The four teams to make it to the league are.. Jamuna, Narmada, Cauvery and Ganga. Of these teams only Cauvery had a tough pre-league match where they beat Godavari 3-1. The other three teams did not encounter any major opposition. In the league Narmada have already won their first league match vs Cauvery 3-1. Chakrapani lost his singles to Satyanarayana for Cauvery's only win.

WATERPOLO

Only the finals remain to be played between Saras and Narmada. The finals are scheduled to be played on Monday evening 5.30 pm. The various league results are : Saras bt Jamuna 6-0, bt Godav 3-0. Narmada bt Godav 6-3 and had a w/o from Jamuna.

SPECTATOR MAN OF THE WEEK...
*****

1. What is common to the teams that won the Bata, AC Tech, RECT, Staff-Student, Spring Spree, Round Table Quizzes ??
2. Who organised the MG quiz and compered the Inter-Hostel quiz ??
3. What is the common name of M.Udayprakash ??
4. What is common to the above three ???

FOOYONG alias Udayprakash is the first 'cultural' personality to make it to this column. His succesful term as Quiz co-od. has come to an end and his consistent performance thro' out is really commendable. FOO is a final yr. Met student from Ganga.

Two cricketers' performances were outstanding this week-Ananthu's 105 and Ramesh's 61* out of 82. Both have been men of the week before and hence do not figure this week. Well done Ananthu, Ramesh and CONGRATS FOO.
