IIT(M) CASHES TECHOFES QUIZ

IIT Madras, represented by Suku, Vijay Kumar (Phantom) and Patabhi (Pat), scored 22 1/2 points to come first. Viveks finished second with 16 points. "Techofes" is a cultural festival of Guindy Engineering College. Pat was instrumental in IIT(M)'s win. He even stole the thunder with some quick-witted replies.

Q: What is the name of the dog in the TV serial "Father, Dear Father"?
'Pat' came the reply: "Son-of-a-bitch".

Q: There are two famous breeds of dogs from Tamil Nadu. One is "Rajapalayam"; name the other.

A: "Mettupalayam".

The quiz was held in a room as big as any HSB classroom. There wasn't much by way of audience.

STANLEY TOURNAMENTS

VOLLEYBALL: Loyola knocks IIT out in semis

In the quarter-finals, our volleyball team defeated Pachiappas 15-9, 13-15, 15-0. Badri played a good game.

Our team was unlucky to be in the same half as Loyola and, lost to them in the semis. Loyola's game was too fast and packed too much of a punch for our team. After an initial lead, we lost 9-15, 7-15.

FOOTBALL: Loyola squeezes past IIT in semis

After putting up a grand performance to beat MCC via the tie-breaker in the semis, (the MCC team included univ. stars like the Naka brothers), our footer team was unlucky to lose 0-1 to Loyola. In an enthralling match the Loyola goal came just a minute before the long whistle. The synthetic ball slipped out of Pai's hands and was pushed in again for the lone goal. Loyola went on to win the finals 4-0.

Sirs,

In your report about the postponed Ganga-Tapti tennis match (SPECTATOR dated 12 February 1982) it has been wrongly mentioned that no one from Ganga turned up. The match was scheduled to start at 4.45 p.m. and at that time the Ganga tennis team was very much present on the court. It was the Tapti team that hadn't turned up.

Dearest JULIE,

Hope you are well, etc., etc.

Nowadays I am living in the SUNEHERA SANSAR along with SHREE 420, DON and that NAMAK HARAAM, KALIA, who interfered in our YE RAASTE PYAR KE and made me a BEGANA ASHIQUE. I still remember how our LOVE STORY began when you were introduced to me by KASHMIR KI KALI in AN EVENING IN PARIS. I was MAJBOOR at that time and couldn't help the DEEWAR that came between us but CHALTE CHALTE I have now become DHANWAN and I am sending my P.A. CHHOTE NAWAB to fetch a CHAUDWIN KA CHAND and present it to MERE MEHBOOB. After that I will come to your father FAKIRA for your hand and will then perform our BIDAI. SHADI KE BAAD we will meet your MAA and go to PURAB-PASCHIM and make LOVE IN CANADA.

Till then,

AAPKE DEWANIE

TENNIS: Godav beat Cauvery 2-0

Third seeds Godav entered the league with a comfortable win over unseeded Cauvery. Satya, playing the fool every other point, beat Rao 10-4 and Venkat (of billiards fame) beat Badrinath 10-1.

TENNIS: Ganga beat Tapti 2-1

4th seeds Ganga had no difficulty in keeping their appointed place in the league. Institute player Shyam of Ganga easily disposed of Kiran (10-3). A nervous Shekhar then lost to Tapti's institute hockey back Shiva (4-10). Shyam and Raghu combined well in the doubles to beat Kiran and Shiva (19+0) and clinch the issue for Ganga.

KABADDI: Cauvery beat Alak 39-29

Down by 5 points at half time, Cauvery came back into their own in the second half to emerge victors over a tough Alak team. The Alak team had 3 instt. stars in their ranks but no team work. For Cauvery Balls (ex-Narmada) played exceedingly well. For Alak Jayaraman and Swami caught the eye.

TABLE TENNIS: Narmada beat Saras 5-0

Raju Velaskar went down fighting 17-21, 21-8, 14-21 to ABS in the most interesting match. ABS went on to scalp Sriram. Sajai easily disposed of Velaskar's and Malcolm's challenge while Avinash beat Sriram.

HOCKEY: Narmada beat Tapti 5-1

Winners for the past two years, Narmada had little difficulty beating their next-door neighbours. Shiva (Tapti), who played a magnificent game, converted a penalty corner and the score was 1-1 at half time. After the breather, Narmada came into its own. Displaying deft stickwork, TR netted thrice (including one penalty stroke) and Ding twice. Shiva was here, there and everywhere, and made a superb goal-line save.

HOCKEY: Saras beat Cauvery 2-0.

Second seeds Saras moved into the league. Neither team scored in the first half. In the second, Saras combined well and Raju Velaskar and Guna found the mark. Inter-hostel matches seem to bring out the best in our institute players: uncharacteristically, Paul did a lot of running for Cauvery.

VOLLEYBALL: Tapti beat Brahms 15-1, 15-7

Tapti had no difficulty at all in brushing aside Brahms' challenge. The teams in the league are Cauvery, Ganga, Saras and Tapti.

BADMINTON: Jamuna beat Alak 3-0

Inter-hostel badminton got off to a start (at last!) this week. Alak had no chance at all against Jamuna. Both Chauhan and Raghu won their singles and combined to win the doubles too.

BALL BADMINTON: Godav beat Brahms 29-13, 29-11

In the first league match, Srikumar's good display enabled Godav to overcome Brahms. Prasad of Brahms impressed.

BASKETBALL: Narmada beat Godav 52-36

The winners were never in difficulty. They surged to a 15-point lead and maintained it. Chandu, who wasn't well, was off-colour. The other teams in the league are Cauvery and Ganga.
